Pedestal hood with sunshield

This free standing gooseneck pedestal mount by BATKO, allows a card access or intercom station to be mounted in application such as garage or gate access. A wide selection of pedestals mounts and hood housings are available to suit drive-up or walk-up applications. The surface mount FRH series can be fixed to the FRP pole mount series or used as a stand alone wall mounted housing. This hood housing is ideal for the long-range readers, made of polycarbonate & high-density polyethylene to reduce risks of interference due to metals. The blank polyethylene face plate allows various mounting configurations. The built-in hood/cover protect components from direct sunlight, rain and snow.
